J. Scott Petty

As a recruiting professional for over two decades, Scott has established a successful track record of recruiting Corporate Directors, Chief Executive Officers, Chief Operating Officers, Chief Financial Officers and other key functional officers for public, private equity backed and closely-held private companies. His practice areas include Diversified Financial Services and Financial Officers.

Prior to joining Chartwell Partners, Scott spent over a decade with Heidrick & Struggles and Spencer Stuart. Over the course of his time with each firm, he led general management search practices in the real estate, financial services and industrial sectors.

As a leading recruiter he frequently presents on senior leadership topics through select association forums. In addition, Scott has published talent management related articles in over the years and has been quoted in The Wall Street Journal and The Dallas Business Journal.

Before entering the executive search industry, Scott worked for MACTEC, a global construction engineering consulting firm, where he was responsible for regional human resources.

Scott received his undergraduate degree in psychology and minor in business management from The University of Texas at Austin. Outside of work, he serves on the Board of Directors and Executive Committee for the West Dallas Community School – a non-profit school serving inner-city West Dallas. In addition, Scott is active in organizations such as Sky Ranch, the YMCA, Boy Scouts of America, Highland Park Presbyterian Church, and Providence Christian School of Texas.

Scott and his wife, Gina Lu, have four children and reside in Dallas, Texas.
